Deacon's Column

As we celebrate the birth of our salvation, we must consider how we can fulfill or promises made to The Lord. On the day we were baptized, we made a promise through our parents and Godparents to live the Christian life fully to the best of our ability. Have we fulfilled the promise we made?

When we celebrate someone's birthday, we often give that person a gift. What can we give to Jesus on His birthday? He does not need any material things; the only thing he needs, wants, and expects from us is a better you and me. He expects us to carry out our promise, as God did to the world.

What will be your response?

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Deacon Tom Willbrand
