CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

August is for some the last chance at summer before the Labor Day Weekend signals its official conclusion. It is also the month in which we celebrate the Assumption of the Blessed Mother and it is the month in which we commemorate one of our greatest saints, Augustine.

He lived from 354 until 430, but spent the first three decades of his life in unholy living. Despite his popularity, success and intelligence he was never at peace. Augustine could serve as the poster man for so many in our modern culture.

After searching and wrestling with himself for years, his turning point came one day when he was sitting in a garden. Caught up with his inner turmoil, he suddenly heard the voice of a child chanting, "Tolle lege, Tolle lege" (Take up and read! Take up and read!) Prompted by the Holy Spirit he picked up a Bible and read from St. Paul's Letter to the Romans. "Let us conduct ourselves properly as in the day, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in promiscuity and licentiousness, not in rivalry and jealousy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the desires of the flesh." (Romans 13:13-14)

That moment began his journey to become a Christian, a Bishop, and a Doctor of the Church, one of its greatest minds. His conversion is summarized in a famous quote that is one of my personal favorites. There is a plaque with this passage from the first page of his Confessions in the vestibule of St. Mary of the Pines. "O God, You have made us for Yourself, and our hearts are restless until they rest in You." That is a beautiful prayer to remember and one on which to base our own search for holiness.

Enjoy the rest of summer!

Msgr. Ken

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

I have found my life to be so busy recently, working to stay ahead in this life's rat race. I find myself focusing only on the here and now. Losing myself to the worldly needs and my pride which has been in the past my greatest downfall. Does this sound familiar, STOP and let the Holy Spirit touch your heart, listen and you can find God there with you, again. I recently was in this position and opened Saint Augustine's "Confessions". Below I paraphrased what he wrote describing God and how he felt.

What are you then, my God? For who is Lord but the Lord? Or who is God? Most highest, most good, most potent, most omnipotent; most merciful, yet most just; most hidden, yet most present; most beautiful, yet most strong, stable, yet incomprehensible; unchangeable, yet all-changing; never new, never old; all-renewing, and bringing age upon the proud, and they know it not; ever working, ever at rest; still gathering, yet lacking nothing; supporting, filling, and overspreading; creating, nourishing, and maturing; seeking, yet having all things; you love, without passion; are jealous, without anxiety; are angry, yet serene; never in need, yet rejoicing in gains; you pay debts, owing nothing; forgive debts, losing nothing.

Oh that I might know you! Oh that you would enter into my heart, and inebriate it, that I may forget my ills, and embrace you, with all my soul! In your pity, teach me. O Lord my God, what you are unto me. Say unto my soul, I am your salvation. So speak, that I may hear. Behold, Lord, my heart is before you; open the ears thereof, and say unto my soul, I am your salvation. After this voice let me haste, and take hold on you. Hide not your face from me. Let me die—lest I die—only let me see your face.

I know that when I include God in my life, those rough times are not so tough, that my tensions tend to fade, and I remember that this life's trials are nothing more than tests of my faith. Keep God the center of your life, and there's no obstacles you can't overcome.

May God continue to bless you and your families.

Vivat Jesus,

Ed Massari G.K.

INSURANCE MATTERS

Five Things You Need to Know Before Talking to Your Insurance Agent

Our agents can advise you on what insurance policies are best for you and your family — that's why they're so helpful. Still, you might be hesitant to sit down with your agent for various reasons. Here are a few things to keep in mind the next time you sit down with a KofC agent to alleviate all your fears.

1. What should a family expect when sitting down with a KofC agent?

A family should expect to visit with a professional and intelligent representative of the Knights of Columbus who is going to bring a great deal of value to their family.

2. What would they discuss?

The agents will start by discussing the history and current events of the Knights of Columbus, then transition into discussing what is going on in the member's life, and then finally educate the member on how we may be able to better their situation financially.

3. Why is this meeting important?

A member's life can change in an instant, and everyone should always be prepared for the unthinkable to happen so their family is okay.

4. Why should families meet regularly with their agent?

Life is always changing. New jobs, new houses, etc. All these things change the financial needs of a family.

5. Why should families choose KofC Insurance?

Personal service is a lost art in our world today. But our agents are not just business men, they are brother Knights and your well-being is their business 24/7. This type of service is so important when you need help the most.

Did You Know?

1 in 4 of today's 20-year-olds will be disabled before they turn 67.

Are you prepared if it happens to you?

Visit with your agent today to discuss how Knights of Columbus disability income insurance can let you earn an income when you can't work due to a disability.

Find your agent at kofc.org/findagent.

Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come unto him and dine with him and he with Me. ~ Revelation 3:20

Hello my Brother Knights,

I wanted to invite you to a retreat that I attended that really helped me. We're so fortunate at St. Mary's, to have this annual retreat. It's called the Light of the World Parish Retreat, and it happens in the parish center in Manahawkin. I had to tell you all about it, and invite you, because I have been changed because of it.

The Light of the World Retreat (which this year happens Saturday August 4th and Sunday August 5th) is a kerygmatic retreat. It's about that First Proclamation of the Good News by Jesus to His apostles. It's about my relationship, your relationship with God. It's about how much God loves us. It's about so many good things. When I reflected on this experience, this opportunity of grace, I thought of you.

Sometimes we are so busy with our day to day lives that we don't even have time to recognize what (or who) we are missing. Life's distractions seem to be getting more intense; this retreat offers a respite from all of that.

If you are interested in attending the Light of the World Retreat, please call the rectory at (609) 698-5531, and tell them you are signing up for the retreat! Someone will reach out to you with further details. I hope to see and you and your family then!

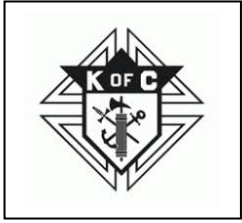

Sincerely,
Ed Massari

I am the light of the world; whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. ~ John 8:12

Prayer to Father Michael J. McGivney

(Founder of the Knights of Columbus)

O great and glorious God, you imbued your holy priest, Father Michael J. McGivney, with deep priestly virtue and especially with pastoral concern for the poor,
 the orphan, the widow, for the Christian education of youth, for the protection of the faith of the working man of his day.

Now that his priestly ministry continues to spread to countless millions throughout the world through the efforts and influence of the Order of the Knights of Columbus, which Father McGivney founded, we beseech you, Heavenly Father, to raise your faithful servant, Michael,
 to the honors of the altar.

We ask this favor through our Lord Jesus Christ and His holy mother, Mary and our mother.

Amen.
