YOUR SHIELD FOR LIFE

Long-Term Care (LTC) needs to a part of any Retirement Plan

According to Money, you and your spouse may need as much as $275,000 to cover medical expenses during your retirement, and that does not include Long Term Care. The U.S. Dept. of Health and Social Services estimates as many as 70% of Americans will need some LTC in their lifetime, at an average cost of more than $80,000 per year. The average nursing home stay is over two years. The statistics are fairly clear. Chances are, you will need it. If you would like me to show you a customized long-term care plan for you, give me a call.
