

Did you know that a catastrophic long term care event can ruin your entire retirement security?

Even if you have not had a personal family experience, there are Knights in our midst, and you know of them, who are struggling financially today because they thought it would not happen to them.

So, why are you not taking advantage of Knights of Columbus Long-Term Care Insurance, which provides coverage options that fit both your budget and your lifestyle?

Insurance such as this can be perceived as confusing. But we are here to tell you that with a 10 minute face to face conversation, we can show you how simple it is to understand. You owe it to yourself and to your family to have this conversation. Let's do this now to avoid a situation that we will all regret.
